

Pitt

Kenneth P. Dietrich
School of Arts and Sciences

Historic Preservation Minor

www.Arch.Pitt.edu

Revised: 12/2018

The Architectural Studies Program offers a minor in preservation available to students from a variety of disciplines who are interested in the history and preservation of architecture and the built environment.

The Architectural Studies Program's website is an invaluable resource for detailed information about current activities, projects, and resources for students seeking to pursue careers in architectural professions. Please visit www.Arch.Pitt.edu.

Required courses for the Historic Preservation minor

The Historic Preservation minor requires 18 credits for completion, distributed as follows.

Nine credits in the required core courses

- ___ ANTH 1541 Special Topics -- Cultural Resource Management
- ___ HAA 1900 Architectural Studies Internship*
- ___ HAA 1920 Introduction to Historic Preservation

* Note: The internship must be conducted with an organization that pertains to the field of historic preservation and be approved by Drew Armstrong, the director of the Architectural Studies Program; e-mail him at CDA68@Pitt.edu.

Nine additional credits selected from the following

- ___ HAA 0940 Approaches to the Built Environment
- ___ HAA 1530 Early American Architecture
- ___ HAA 1531 Modern American Architecture
- ___ HAA 1913 Foundation Studio 1
- ___ HAA 1921 Documentation and Conservation Studio (6 credits) – highly recommended
- ___ HAA 1922 Preservation: Texts and Theory (a w-course)
- ___ HAA 1923 Global Preservation

Advising

It is imperative that students who intend to pursue the architectural studies major contact the departmental advisor as soon as possible to discuss the recommended course sequence for each track, course availability, and entry into restricted classes.

Maria D'Anniballe
Undergraduate Advisor
FKART 118B
412-648-2101
MDAW@Pitt.edu

To set up an appointment, go to <https://HAADepartmentAdvising.AcuityScheduling.com>

Note: Students must apply for any official minor they will complete or have completed when they apply for graduation.